1. Brig Gen Duszynski has been assigned to command the 1st Infantry Division at Warsaw.
2. Col Siedlecki has been transferred from command of the 1st Infantry Division to command of the 12th Infantry Division.
3. Maj Halpern has been made deputy commander of the 6th Infantry Division at Krakow and is in charge of the political-educational branch.
4. The entire 5th Independent Armored Brigade has been transferred to Wysz Saco. Parts of the brigade were previously stationed at Krakow and Jaworzno.
5. Lt Col Zygmunt Huszcza of the 27th Infantry Regiment at Kladzkowas has been ordered to the General Staff School.
6. Capt Lebledow, a Russian, is political-educational officer for the 27th Infantry Regiment.
7. The 1st Engineer Regiment at Brzeg had a 1 Nov 47 strength of 84 officers, 26 professional noncommissioned officers, 114 noncommissioned officers, and 545 men. The regimental commander, Zarozynski (Russian), is on leave in the USSR and Lt Col Kinoszynski is acting commanding officer. A portion of the 1st Engineer Regiment consisting of 25 officers, 64 noncommissioned officers, and 450 men helped clear mines from Wroclaw.
8. The 84th Motorized IA Battalion arrived in Brzeg on 1 Sep 47 after being on leave. It had a strength of 13 officers, 55 noncommissioned officers, and 126 men. Its weapons and equipment included four quick-firing cannons, seven 77 mm guns, and 14 cars.
9. On 8 Oct 47 a large transport of men from all the airforce regiments in Poland left Warsaw for Moscow. Each regiment sent from 12 to 20 of its youngest recruits. Many of the recruits believed that they would never see Poland again.

10. A further reduction in the number of army officers is likely. Maj Husara stated at Klusko that "according to directives just received, we must reduce our expenses by 10%".
11. The Infantry Training Center in Rembertow is giving a nine-months training course for commanders of companies and larger units. The most recent class comprised 1,820 officers of whom 472 were returned to their units as undesirable after three months of training. Only 411 of the officers completed the course satisfactorily. The school's director, Gen Jarkia; its commanding officer, Col Turbina; and 123 of its instructors are Russian.
12. On 12 Aug 47 approximately 46 men were enrolled in a course for noncommissioned officers which opened in DOW 6 (Dowództwo Okręgu Wojskowego - Military District Command). Capt Szol is commanding officer of the school. His deputy for political-educational matters is MSgt Kozak. The school's instructors are Lt Paluowski and Wroblewski. The course is offering the following subjects:
 - (a) Ballistics
 - (b) Topography
 - (c) Chemistry
 - (d) Arms and Ammunition
 - (e) Tactics
 - (f) Army Regulations
 - (g) Leadership and Command
 - (h) Communications
 - (i) Engineering
13. Many Polish Army officers, particularly those who were AK men, assert that they will desert and flee to the forests if, in the event of war, the USSR attempts to use the Polish Army against the Anglo-Saxons on a foreign front. These officers state that the units under their command will follow the orders of the Polish Independence Center (Polski Ośrodek Niepodległościowy).
14. All naval units are now commanded by PPK members as a result of a recent personnel purge ordered by the High Command of the Navy. Commanders whose party loyalty was in doubt were either dismissed outright or transferred to other posts. Following the purge, the Polish coastline was divided into three administrative areas:
 - (a) Gdansk,
 - (b) Szczecin,
 - (c) Ustka, Puck, Władysławowo, Hel, and Międzyzdroje.
15. The CPN (Centrala Produktów Naftowych - Oil Products Center) oil storage facilities at Wrocław are to be transferred to the Army.
